3. Leadership Team

Mr Andy - Director

Our responsibility goes beyond guarding property - we are entrusted with protecting people, businesses, communities and livelihoods. The Director provides strategic leadership and ensures that the company remains focused on professionalism, integrity, disciplined service delivery and sustainable growth.

Abdul Moosa - Human Resources Manager

Our people are central to the quality of our security services. Human Resources supports recruitment, employee development, welfare, performance management and professional conduct, helping to build a disciplined, capable and inclusive workforce.

Mr Thobejane - Operations Manager | Grade A

Security is measured by performance on the ground. The Operations Manager focuses on deployment, supervision, site performance, operational readiness, incident management and maintaining professional standards across client sites.

Jakes Mokone - Marketing Manager

Marketing strengthens the AWL & AWL brand, develops client relationships and communicates the company's security capabilities. The focus is on professional visibility, digital engagement and tailored solutions that respond to client needs.

Management Approach

Management is supported by regular supervision, site inspections, performance monitoring, incident reporting, client communication and continuous improvement. This structure helps ensure accountability from management level through to security personnel deployed at client sites.

4. Operational Standards

- Regular supervision and spot checks of deployed security officers.
- Routine site inspections, audits and client feedback sessions.
- Incident reporting, investigation and corrective-action procedures.
- Ongoing employee training, performance evaluation and development.
- Reliable communication and responsive operational support.
- Security solutions tailored to the risk profile and requirements of each client.
